The Collects for Octave of Christmas:

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us thy only begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and as at this time to be born of a pure Virgin: Grant that we being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit; through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

O Immortal Lord God, who inhabitest eternity, and hast brought thy servants to the beginning of another year: Pardon, we humbly beseech thee, our transgressions in the past, bless to us this New year, and graciously abide with us all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Introit Psalm

When as all the world was in profoundest quietness, and night was in the midst of her swift course: thine almighty word, O Lord, leaped down from heaven out of thy royal throne. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength. Glory be and to the Holy Ghost. As it was and ever shall be: world without end. Vicar's Voice

Happy New Year Everyone!

As we change the calendar to a new year and view all of the plans we have for the coming months and year, no doubt there are dates that we flag as significant.

Speaking of calendars, have you ever noticed The Calendar in the Book of Common Prayer – which begins on page “ix” right near the very front of the book?

Under each month of the Calendar, you will notice important church festivals such as Christmas, Epiphany and Easter, and you will also see the names of the Apostles and other saints featured –to acknowledge our connection with some of the many faithful people over the centuries who have served God.

Among the names, you will see St Augustine, the first Archbishop of Canterbury. You will also notice John and Charles Wesley. Over his life, Charles Wesley wrote over 6500 hymns! Notice also on March 6 – Perpetua. She was one of the only women to be martyred. Her faith and witness were very significant in the early church.

There is also a significant figure man named Polycarp (remembered January 26). He was a student of the apostle John and lived between 70 and 155 A.D. Polycarp wrote supportive letters to the church at Philippi - encouraging them to remain strong in their faith and character.

Polycarp served as the bishop of the church at Smyrna (modern day Izmir , Turkey), and was recognized as one of the early combatants of Christian heresies. He rejected the teachings of Marcion, an influential heretic who tried to create a "new brand" of Christianity by redefining God and rejecting Old Testament teachings.

Polycarp's testimony is encouraging. Throughout his life, his faith remained strong. In his 86th year, and amid a period of great persecution at the hands of the Romans, Polycarp was resolute. When they eventually came for Polycarp, urging him to recant his faith to avoid martyrdom,, Polycarp responded with conviction, saying: "Eighty-six years I have served Christ, and He never did me any wrong. How can I blaspheme my King who saved me?"

Polycarp's strength of character was, and remains a great encouragement to Christians of all time.

There is a similar Calendar in the BAS which includes other saints which have been noted since the BCP was published. The lives of the Saints stand for us as examples of faith and trust in Christ. Let us be people who continue to grow in our faith and trust in the Lord as they did.

May the Peace of the Lord be always with you. Rob+
